What part of CLUSTR did you find most interesting or meaningful?

5 responses

Seeing how many ideas contributed, seeing clusters of ideas in real time

That it not only helps see the number of contributions per person but also the cluster of ideas to help with ideation

Hi

The ability to collaborate without a voice of leadership

The colours matching on the screen

What would you like to see improved or added?

5 responses

In the future could add text reading features

Since clustering helped with ideation, having more features that help find patterns could be cool!

The ability to see contents of notes on the screen

perhaps different styles of flowers, or other branching organisms like leaves

How likely would you be to use a tool like CLUSTR in your own teamwork or classroom?

If you used CLUSTR over multiple sessions, what goals might you set (e.g., number of flowers, balanced colors, fewer clusters)?

4 responses

I think having a set number of flowers for each

Balanced colours and fewer clusters (for broad explorations)

Movement from small clusters to larger flowers over the sessions

How would you describes your experience with CLUSTR

4 responses

I like it I can see it being used in university settings

Really cool! It's something I would use with a group!

Hi

Great
